

American Heritage Tour

McKinley Presidential Library & Museum

2011-2012

Prepare to travel back in time with one of our trained history docents. The American Heritage Tour will take you and your students into the museum's Street of Shops, the McKinley Gallery and our brand new exhibit, The Stark County Story.

Just a few of the things that your class will see during the American Heritage Tour!

Street of Shops

The Worschler Cabin is the starting point for your trip in the Street of Shops. Learn what it was like to live, work and play in the 1800s. Continue down the street and walk through the Dannemiller Store. Learn about the importance of the Blacksmith and the Printer. Take a peek inside a hotel room from the 1880s. As you near the end of the street you will find the fire station. Slide down the fire pole and then its on the model train layout showing the Pennsylvania Railroad as it was in the early 1900s.

The following objects or terms will be discussed in the Street of Shops:

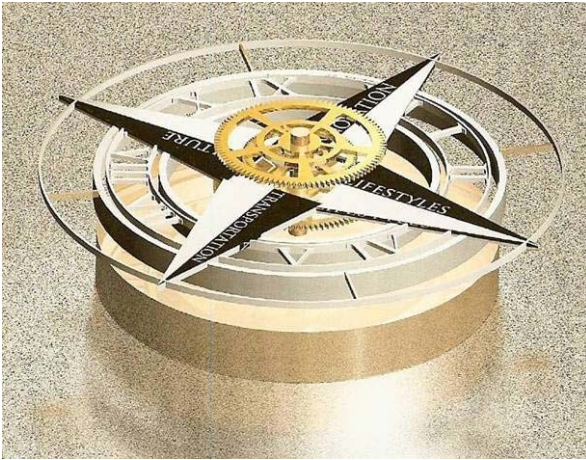

Butter Churn
